George Washington Views the Past, Present, and the Future

By Betsy Jo Miller, Scribe

In this book several “founding fathers,” through the naturalness of consciousness, share their faults, the pains of birthing this nation, the fallacies of their war, and their expectations of the future.

They chide us for not continuing their good works but of abetting actions that have led to wars, terrorism, and weather changes. They urge us to use our innate powers to make changes quickly—promising their help when we begin.

Here you will discover the true facts about Washington’s relation with his family, Sally Fairfax, and Martha; Jefferson’s relations with Sally Hemings; and Adams reunion with Jefferson—so that both died on the fiftieth anniversary of the Declaration of Independence.

Thinking and Destiny

A Classic for the Ages

By Harold W. Percival

Here is your personal guide for the New Age, with its unparalleled challenges and opportunities. You will finally understand that, by your own thinking, you have made your destiny up to the present. You will learn how you have the power to change your future, but more, you will help change the destiny of the world!

Many have proclaimed Thinking and Destiny, Percival’s masterwork, to be the most complete book ever written on man and the universe. Here you will find rare information about your true identity. With this knowledge, you will then have the potential to awaken your own inherent ability to understand all that constitutes existence.

The reading of this magnificent work may well be the most exciting and rewarding experience of your life – a peace and joy in knowing, a feeling of harmony, security, love, non-aloneness; it puts the spotlight on many problems and mysteries otherwise inexplicable.

Falling Into Joy

By Conni Ponturo

This is a book about joy, how to get it and keep it in our lives. It is all simpler than we are making it out to be, meaning living in our bodies.

It’s the small steps we take, day in and day out, that make a huge difference. That’s what creates lasting change and transformation at any age. We just need to take them.

Presented here are real-life stories of people who use motivational techniques, such as focused breathing and stretching on the foam roller, that help them move more easily and allow them to feel better in their bodies, and ultimately connect to the joy in their lives.

A Matter of Death and Life

By D.L. Kline

A Matter of Death and Life deals with a subject that touches all of us and the illusion of death—what really happens to us when our physical bodies cease to function and, more importantly, how we plan all our lives to make the most of our brief time on Earth.

“Nobody ever ‘dies.’ When this body you are currently inhabiting ceases to function, and an earthly life can no longer be maintained by it, you, the real you, your soul if you will, simply leaves that body and returns to your home in the dimension next to this one.”

D. L. Kline lived a fairly ordinary life until an unexpected psychic awakening at the age of 60. Now he is writing a series of books about his spiritual journey to help others find their own paths.
